

Newquay Foodbank Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role: Fundraising and Grants Officer

Volunteer Manager: Lead Fundraiser

Where you will be based: Home based

Time Commitment: 5 – 10 hours per month

Why you should join Newquay Foodbank:

Newquay Foodbank was founded in 2011 by the community and we work to distribute emergency food and essential items to people in Newquay, and surrounding areas, who are facing a financial crisis. We are a volunteer led organisation and rely on the skills that people from outside our organisation can bring. We are committed to ensuring that we have a sustainable operation both financially and by volunteer support and we must ensure our profile is raised in the community. By volunteering as a Fundraising and Grants Officer, you will be responsible for researching, writing and applying for grant funding to help support the vital work of the foodbank.

What you will be doing (including but not limited to):

- Writing and submitting grant funding proposals
- Researching suitable local and national grants to apply for on behalf of the foodbank
- Engaging with local businesses and funders to support our work, with financial donations or gifts in kind

The skills you need:

- Excellent written communication skills
- Previous fundraising experience
- Good IT skills, including Microsoft Office
- Organised and able to complete tasks accurately with good attention to detail
- Ability to listen and engage with people from a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences
- Ability to get on with others and be part of a team as well as completing tasks independently
- A willingness to learn about our organisation and our place within the Trussell Trust and align to our campaigns

Benefits of joining Newquay Foodbank:

- Have an enjoyable experience while volunteering for a nationally recognised organisation
- Full induction and training required to undertake your role
- Access to Tempo Time Credits, earning rewards for your volunteering
- Reimbursement of out of pocket expenses
- A Newquay Foodbank uniform
- Learning new skills and utilising your existing skills to make a difference to the community
- Meet new people and be part of a motivated team who share your passion to achieve social justice

By volunteering with Newquay Foodbank, we will ask you to commit to:

- Treating all foodbank users with dignity and respect, whilst maintaining confidentiality as set out in our Confidentiality Agreement
- Reading and abiding by the Newquay Foodbank's Policies and Procedures, including agreeing to and attending any training required to undertake your role
- Meeting time and other commitments as agreed
